Hi Jacqueline,

See below as requested. I do not have access to account ending in 506.

I have attached pictures of the boys bedrooms as of today, please get these to Rebecca. During our call she asked about if they have beds and I am sure the Court will want to see the state of their rooms before considering custody with me, they will also be unclear as to what was removed from the marital home when Heather left. The boys' bedding and beds did not go. It's also hinted that the boys sleep in my bed when they are with me, but that has more to do with the imbalance Heather forced with the custody.

Lastly, car insurance. I believe Heather believes she is still paying for my car insurance, this is not true. I had to arrange a policy myself with Westpac, details attached.
