Stephen

See email below from other side re the trust sent after court today. The must have heard my comments today re the Trust.

If you wish, we can get do an ASIC search to see what private companies in which Heather is currently a shareholder, director or other office holder. If what they say below is correct, it should just show Heather Anne Cooke Pty Ltd and will show the establishment date. Would you like us to do so?

We can also do a historical search to see what private companies in which she has had such roles in the past.

I am not suggesting these are necessary. You might wish to do so to remove uncertainty as far as possible.

Regards,

Dear Colleagues

We refer to the above matter.

Around the time of Mediation in late June 2024, our client disclosed the establishment of a Discretionary Trust, the "Heather Anne Cooke Discretionary Trust", for future business purposes.

We are instructed that the trust is currently completely dormant and does not own any assets or generate any income. There is no ABN or tax file number for the trust. There is no bank account associated with the trust.

We hope that the above disclosure may satisfy your client that the Heather Anne Cooke Discretionary Trust does not hold any value.

Yours faithfully

Dear Stephen,

Please find attached the ASIC search to see what private companies in which Heather is currently (or previously) a shareholder, director or other office holder.

It shows Heather is currently a shareholder, director and secretary of Heather Anne Cooke Pty Ltd.

It appears she's never held a historical role.

The national property ownership search for yourself should be returned tomorrow.

Dear Stephen

Following on from our phone call of last night, I have time today to go through and finalise the offer we discussed on the weekend. I think we should get it off to the other side asap.

I could do this at 12 or 3. Does either time suit you?

By settling property on a final basis, we can potentially avoid the court date on 23 July. It will also allow Heather and you to focus back on the kids, agree on final parenting orders and get that out of court as well.
