Thank you but it's not a job yet unfortunately but rather an internship for a 3 month period without pay.

If after the 3 month period I have passed the 3 courses (2 of which they are paying for me as part of the internship) they have agreed to extend a job offer for full time employment starting at 55K per annum.

Starting Monday I'll be there during office hours studying while gaining hands on experience to prepare me for the role.

Regarding Lab Learning, Christian assesment went well with John. John only remark for me was he continues to have difficulties with place holders i. e. tens, hundreds, etc but otherwise did well.

Thank you.

Stephen
