Hi Stephen,

We write to advise that your application has now been filed with the Court.

As the application was made on an urgent basis it will be reviewed by a Registrar and a court date allocated. Once we have received notice of the court date, we will advise you accordingly.

The Court has implemented an initiative when parenting applications are filed that focuses on identifying risk factors and safety issues. The initiative is called the Lighthouse Project. The model offers parties in eligible proceedings, the opportunity to complete a confidential risk screen at the point of filing. You will shortly be contacted to complete a triage risk screen.

To help you familiarise yourself with this process you may click here to read more about the Lighthouse Project. There is also a short webinar that you might like to watch.

We enclose the following filed documents:

1. Initiating Application (unsealed) filed on 5 December 2023.
2. Affidavit filed 5 December 2023.
3. Affidavit of Non-Filing FDR Certificate filed 5 December 2023.
4. Notice of child abuse, family violence or risk filed 5 December 2023.
5. Financial Statement filed 5 December 2023.
6. Genuine Steps Certificate filed 5 December 2023.

Please don’t hesitate to contact our firm if you have any questions.

Yours faithfully,

Prue Garvin | Paralegal

Hi Stephen,

I refer to my email correspondence below and enclose Parenting Questionnaire filed on 6 December 2023.

Apologies for not including this yesterday. There seems to have been a technical issue with this document when filing your application and I have had to file it again this morning.

This will have no impact of the application.

Many thanks,

Yours faithfully,

Thank you.

Do we know how long it takes for an urgent order to be processed? Am I going to receive a court date to attend a hearing for an order?

What do you think will happen next?

Hi Stephen,

While we have made the application and sought urgency we may not actually be granted it. We should know in the next day or so when a Court date is provided. If we get urgency then the court date will be in the next few weeks. If we don't get urgency then we will need to try and negotiate with Heather to get holiday arrangements sorted at a minimum. We'll be in contact as soon as we know.

Yours faithfully,
