Dear Mr Stephen Cooke,

RE: Expense recovery fee increase

Thank you for investing in the Separately Managed Accounts scheme.

Praemium as Responsible Entity manages scheme costs carefully to keep fees as low as possible for our investors. As set out in the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS), the Responsible Entity will be paid or reimbursed for any costs, charges and expenses incurred in the management and operation of the scheme.

Over the last few years there have been significant increases in regulatory and management costs, especially relating to ASIC funding levies, compliance and governance costs, and associated audit costs:

- 25% increase in ASIC levies;
- 52% increase in corporate insurance premiums; and
- 40% increase in compliance and investment governance resources to support investor growth.

The expense recovery fee levied to accounts will be increased from "up to $65" (as stated in the PDS), to be capped at $100 per account. The increase will be effective from when this levy is next applied to accounts in the week beginning 6 June 2022.

What action do you need to take?

There is no action required. The increase will become effective in June 2022.

We remain committed to ensuring that the Separately Managed Account scheme delivers the most feature rich and value for money experience, to complement your ongoing investment objectives and advice provided by your financial adviser. We recommend you speak to your adviser to find out more about these changes.

Sincerely,

Anna Itsiopoulos

Chief Operating Officer
