

█████ CLEANING LTD.

EMPLOYEE HOUSING / OCCUPANCY AGREEMENT

█████, Canmore, Alberta

This Employee Housing / Occupancy Agreement ("Agreement") is between █████ Cleaning Ltd. ("Employer") and the employee named below ("Employee"). It is based on the residential lease held by the Employer for █████, Canmore, Alberta, with the property owners/landlords █████ and █████. This Agreement does not replace or amend the landlord's lease and is subject to the landlord's lease, any required landlord consent, and applicable Alberta law.

1. PARTIES AND PREMISES

Employer: █████ Cleaning Ltd.

Employee Name: Stephen Cooke

Employee Phone: _____

Employee Email: _____

Rental Premises: █████, Canmore, Alberta

Permitted Occupants: Employee only, unless otherwise approved in writing by the Employer and landlord

2. TERM

Occupancy starts October 1, 2026 and continues through March 31, 2027, after which it may continue month-to-month, subject to the underlying landlord lease and applicable law, unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement.

Employee agrees to provide at least 30 days' written notice of intended move-out, unless a different period is required by applicable law or the underlying tenancy arrangement.

3. RENT AND EMPLOYER HOUSING SUBSIDY

Item	Monthly Amount
Total rent payable for the accommodation	$1,300.00
Employee's rent contribution	$1,000.00
█████ Cleaning Ltd. housing subsidy	$300.00
Total paid to/for the accommodation	$1,300.00

The Employee's monthly contribution of $132.00/month will be collected by payroll deduction only after the Employee has signed the payroll deduction authorization in Section 4. The employee is responsible to pay █████ Cleaning Ltd. an additional amount of $868.00 monthly (totaling $1,000/month) via cash, cheque or e-transfer. The Employer will pay or otherwise account for the remaining $300.00 monthly housing subsidy.

The $300.00 subsidy is an employer-provided housing benefit. The Employer may change or discontinue the subsidy only in accordance with the written terms of this Agreement, applicable employment standards, and any applicable tax/payroll requirements.

4. PAYROLL DEDUCTION AUTHORIZATION

Employee expressly authorizes █████ Cleaning Ltd. to deduct $132/month from the Employee's earnings for the Employee's accommodation at █████, Canmore, Alberta.

The deduction is for rent/accommodation and is separate from statutory deductions such as income tax, CPP and EI. The Employer will identify the deduction and its purpose on the applicable pay statement as required by law.

Payroll schedule: ☐ Weekly ☐ Bi-weekly ☐ Semi-monthly ☒ Monthly

If the $132.00 monthly amount is collected through more than one pay period, the Employer and Employee will record the exact amount per pay period here: $_____ per pay period, with a monthly total of $132.00.

The Employee acknowledges that payroll deductions must comply with Alberta Employment Standards requirements. If a proposed deduction would be unlawful, the Employer will not make that deduction and will make appropriate arrangements for the accommodation charge.

5. SECURITY / DAMAGE DEPOSIT

The underlying landlord lease provides for a $1,300.00 security/damage deposit. The parties will record who funded and holds the deposit as follows:

Deposit paid by: ☒ [REDACTED] Cleaning Ltd. ☐ Employee ☐ Other: _____

Amount: $1,300.00

The Employee is responsible for damage caused by the Employee or the Employee's permitted occupants/guests, to the extent permitted by law and the underlying tenancy agreement. Any deduction or recovery from the Employee will be handled in accordance with applicable law and will not be treated as an unauthorized payroll deduction.

6. HOUSE RULES AND CONDITIONS

1. Overnight guests are not permitted. Daytime visitors are permitted, subject to reasonable house rules. Any overnight guest requires prior written approval.
2. Quiet enjoyment must be respected. No boisterous parties, loud music or activity that damages or devalues the property, interferes with other residents, or annoys neighbours.
3. The premises may be used only as a private residence and not for conducting a business, profession or trade.
4. No assignment or subletting of the room or any portion of the premises without the required written approval.
5. No pets or animals, including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, rodents or insects.
6. No smoking inside the building, garage, premises or within the property boundary lines.
7. No cannabis cultivation or other unauthorized plantation inside the property.
8. Employee must keep the accommodation clean, sanitary and in good condition, subject to reasonable wear and tear.
9. Employee must promptly report leaks, pests, damage, maintenance issues or other conditions that could cause further damage.
10. Employee must not tamper with smoke detectors, carbon monoxide detectors or other safety devices.
11. Laundry in shared accommodations is limited to 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.
12. Employee must comply with parking rules, including the restriction on the three reserved stalls in front of the house.
13. Employee must obtain and maintain renter's insurance if required by the underlying landlord lease and provide proof upon request.
14. Employee must comply with reasonable inspection and access requirements contained in the underlying landlord lease and applicable law.
15. Employee must return keys, fobs, remotes and other property at move-out and may be responsible for replacement costs where permitted by law.

7. MAINTENANCE, DAMAGE AND CLEANLINESS

The Employee must maintain the accommodation in a clean and sanitary condition and is responsible for damage caused by misuse, neglect, breach of this Agreement, or actions of the Employee or the Employee's guests, except for normal wear and tear and matters that are the landlord's responsibility.

The Employee must notify the Employer promptly of any condition requiring repair. The Employer will coordinate with the property owner/landlord as appropriate.

8. EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND HOUSING

The Employee's right to occupy the accommodation is connected to this employee housing arrangement. If employment ends, the parties will comply with the applicable tenancy and employment laws concerning the end of the accommodation. Neither party waives any statutory right by signing this Agreement.

Nothing in this Agreement permits the Employer to terminate employment or tenancy contrary to applicable law.

9. UNDERLYING LANDLORD LEASE

The Employee acknowledges that the Employer's accommodation is governed by an underlying residential lease with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] for [REDACTED]. The Employee agrees to comply with applicable occupancy, safety, property-care and house rules from that lease that apply to occupants.

If there is a conflict between this Agreement and a mandatory requirement of Alberta law, the law prevails. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and the underlying landlord lease, the Employer will work with the Employee to resolve the conflict, but the Employee cannot be granted rights to the premises that the Employer does not have under the underlying lease.

10. MOVE-OUT

At the end of occupancy, the Employee must remove personal belongings, return all keys and access devices, clean the accommodation, and leave it in substantially the same condition as at move-in, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

A move-in and move-out inspection should be completed and signed by the Employer and Employee, with photographs where appropriate.

11. WRITTEN NOTICES

Notices under this Agreement should be in writing and delivered personally, by email, or by another method permitted by applicable law. The parties should retain copies of all notices.

12. ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND CHANGES

This Agreement records the employee housing arrangement between the Employer and Employee. Any change to the rent contribution, subsidy, payroll deduction, occupancy terms or other material term must be made in writing and signed by both parties, subject to applicable law.

13. EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By signing below, the Employee confirms that they have read this Agreement, understand the $1,300 monthly accommodation cost, understand that their monthly contribution is $1,000 and that [REDACTED] Cleaning Ltd. is providing a $300 monthly housing subsidy, and voluntarily authorize the payroll deduction described in Section 4, subject to applicable law.
