Dear Ms. Shedden,

Thank you for providing the draft joint letter. While your email requests that I review the letter, I note that I have not been provided with an opportunity to contribute to its content or make any substantive changes at this juncture. Nonetheless, I have signed and returned the letter as requested to comply with the court's directions.

I also wish to note that I have fulfilled my obligations under the court's orders in relation to costs as specified.

Please confirm once the final email to The Relationspace has been sent, as outlined in your email.

Kind regards,

Stephen Cooke
