

Stephen Cooke <stephencooke.c@gmail.com>

My decision to self-represent

2 messages

Stephen Cooke <stephencooke.c@gmail.com>

Wed, Oct 23, 2024 at 10:54 AM

To: Neill Cooke <cooke.neill@gmail.com>, Sheila Cooke <sheilacooke.c@gmail.com>, David Cooke <davidcooke.c@gmail.com>, Angela Cooke <angelacooke.c@gmail.com>

Despite having spent $200,000, along with an additional $2,500 on drug and alcohol tests, my previous two lawyers were unable to ensure this crucial information reached the court and, by extension, the Family Report writer, who will be influencing decisions regarding the children.

Only made possible by representing myself, I successfully issued a subpoena to obtain the necessary documents, circumventing gatekeeping that would have otherwise prevented this information from reaching the Family Report writer. This ensured that these highly relevant attachments are submitted directly to the court and, by extension, to the Family Report writer. The Family Report writer is now obligated to consider the attachments in forming their opinion regarding parenting for the court.

I know you all have been affected and impacted by my matter greatly, and I do appreciate that you're looking out for my best interests.

P.S. Read the letters, they're addressed to my Doctor (GP)

Love.

Stephen

Follow me on LinkedIn: [www.linkedin.com/in/stephen-cooke-b853702ab]

2 attachments Atune Psychiatrist letters.pdf
2948K Drug and Alcohol - Stephen Cooke.pdf
9558K

Neill Cooke <cooke.neill@gmail.com>

Wed, Oct 23, 2024 at 4:54 PM

To: Stephen Cooke <stephencooke.c@gmail.com>

Happy you have your information before the court but hugely dismayed and disappointed that you are not urgently seeking full time work to;

1. Support yourself like a self respecting human being.

2. Cover your expenses of many thousands of dollars a month.
3. Protect your nest egg which will now be gone in 3 years
4. Plan for your retirement through workplace contributions.
5. Help you own a home which is critical to your financial security.
6. Demonstrate that you are not the lazy person Heather claims you to be.
7. Setting a good example for your boys.

What father of two children decides not to get a full time job when his children are just 8 and 10 years old!?!?

Your decision is disgusting and a deep embarrassment. If the only job you could find was sweeping the streets of Newcastle I would be proud of you BUT your current decision to not seek full time work is beyond acceptance to me and is consistent with abandonment of your parental responsibility.

I am heartbroken at what you and Heather are doing to your children. Their mother is callous and their father refuses to step up to support his own financial needs but instead decides to just burn through the relatively small amount of money he does have in three years.

Your decision not to get full time work is absolutely unacceptable to me. I did not raise you to lie about ignoring your future and your responsibilities - to yourself and to your children. You are supposed to be role model to your children!

Get a full time job and get it soon. For your sake, your boys sake and for our relationship to continue. I will not watch my son ignore his fundamental responsibility to himself and his children.

And, yes, " your matter " has caused us great pain over the past 18 months but the greatest pain to all of us is your reluctance to work for a living like the rest of mankind. And, please, spare us any more bullshit reasons as to why you cannot work. They simply highlight your desperate attempt to avoid being inconvenienced by having to earn a living.

If you hit a court for a parenting decision without a full time job, you will lose time with the boys. The court's decision will include points 1 - 7 above. When that happens, and it will, please remember who tried repeatedly to convince you of the need to find a full time job. Any full time job.

And when the courts uses points 1 - 7 against you, I will be heartbroken but unable to disagree with their decision.

[Quoted text hidden]